Lilibet

is a Howards
of Hemet California

Origination

Plant Patent
No. 1209

AN ORIGINATION OF HOWARDS OF HEMET, CALIFORNIA

This dainty new floribunda, named in honor of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II and chosen a 1954 All-America Rose Selections Award winner, has been given tremendous publicity since its announcement in June.

Now, with the rose selling season just ahead, Howards of Hemet will augment the mounting interest in Lilibet with full-color advertisements in leading home and garden publications. In addition, articles will be published in magazines and newspapers, special announcements will be made on radio and television garden programs.

This extensive advertising and publicity program promises to make Lilibet one of the big profit-makers for you this season.

We want to help you sell this outstanding rose, since we do not sell to consumers. We are strictly a wholesale grower.

In this booklet, we are offering you a window banner, full-color postcards, a selection of newspaper mats and free full-color printing plates to enable you to tie into our program and get maximum advantage of Lilibet's popularity.

We urge you to send in your order for this material now, so you'll be ready to tell your customers that they may buy Lilibet from your nursery.
